

Please, don't even think of caving into special interests to limit WI's no call list. If you can't help the citizens by strengthening state power to decide what's correct for its residence, then don't do anything at all!